MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: SA/DCI/IA
SUBJECT: Meeting with Judge Clark, 20 July 1983

1. The agenda has not been coordinated as yet with the NSC. The following topics are on the agenda:

-- Soviet Influence in the Third World. You may point out to Clark the data on LDC students in the USSR; [redacted]

25X1
25X1

-- NIE on Soviet Space. This estimate is particularly notable in the breadth of its scope and longer term view as well as its tendency to make judgments rather than just describing what could happen.

-- US Posture to Soviet Populace. [redacted] has prepared talking points which highlight the importance of US policy differentiating between the Soviet Government and the Soviet people.

-- A Fourth Passenger Ship to Cuba. Observations indicate that the passengers are most likely students returning to Cuba. We continue to keep a tight watch on shipments to Cuba and from Cuba to Nicaragua.

25X1

-- Turkey: Inevitability of War with Syria. DDI/EURA has prepared a note to put perspective on Turkish President Evren's statement that he believes Turkey will at some point have to go to war with Syria.
